

Children grow and learn an amazing amount in their first five years. Some children will develop certain skills (like walking or talking) faster or slower than others. These differences are very normal.

It is important for you to understand your own child, build on your child's strengths, and provide your child with love and support. Development happens through loving relationships, ones in which babies and toddlers can explore, learn, and grow. You will grow as your child grows.

Grow

Learn

Play

Connect

RICHMOND CHILDREN FIRST
8660 Ash Street, Richmond, BC V6Y 2S3 • Phone: 604.241.4035 • info@richmondchildrenfirst.ca

Read more about Growing Together at www.richmondchildrenfirst.ca