Please join us for

Enhancing Family Relationships

Thursday, January 26th, 2012

12:30 – 2:30 pm.

Room M2.004, Richmond City Hall
6911 No. 3 Road, Richmond, BC

In this workshop we will examine our own families of origin and the values and beliefs that shape us, and explore families in Canadian culture today. We will look at the stages of the family life cycle; identify the various factors that affect families; and consider strategies to build positive relationships with parents and caregivers.

Sharon Hoyland is a skilled facilitator and adult educator with over thirty years of broad community service. Her roots are in child-care and working with children with special needs. As a social worker, Sharon spent several years supporting both women and children exposed to family violence and was instrumental in establishing the Children Who Witness Abuse program within BC. Sharon is currently a trainer for the Roots of Empathy Program and the Family Resource Certificate Program and also facilitates FASD training for key-workers.*
